

Discovering and acquiring the latest art Discovery Art Fair at Frankfurt fairgrounds

An extraordinary art event will once again come to life in imposing Hall 1 of Messe Frankfurt on the first weekend in November. The Discovery Art Fair is pleased to celebrate its 6th edition from 2 to 5 November and to invite art lovers and professionals to an exciting journey of discovery.

The international fair inspires with its truly unique diversity. Both experienced collectors and occasional customers can be sure to make the right discovery here, since the fair programmes of the more than 110 participants cater for every taste and every budget. There are several thousand art objects to choose from which can be purchased on site and taken home immediately. There is indeed no better place to buy the perfect personal present or new authentic art for one's own home.

Carefully selected galleries and artists from all over the world showcase their latest works and programmes in Frankfurt. The list of international participants includes artists from South Korea, Canada, Mexico City, Ljubljana, Warsaw and Amsterdam, and the Rhine-Main region is represented with numerous exhibition appearances as well. In this, the Discovery Art Fair remains true to its successful concept: alongside well-established names the focus is on up-and-coming newcomers and young talents, which is attractive for all those who want to discover one or another rising star at affordable prices. In distinction from common fair concepts, the organisers have committed to allocating around half of the stands to new exhibitors, so that each DAF edition takes a very individual and up-to-date look at the currents and trends of the art scenes both at home and abroad.

9,000 square metres in the exhibition hall provide much space for the display of a most multi-faceted portfolio of contemporary art, ranging from space-consuming installations to pocket-sized editions, from large and brightly coloured paintings to delicate drawings and from bronze sculptures to graffiti art. This diversity of the works invites you to enter a world full of shapes and colours and creative concepts. What's more, the relaxed and communicative atmosphere of the Discovery Art Fair makes it easy to get in touch with gallerists and artists and acquire art.

In addition, the team of curators offers free guided tours every day, providing special insights into the fair. This year, too, the organisers have a special gift for all art fans: admission is free for all visitors on the Friday of the fair.
